Leader Spotlight: Jessica "Learning What Truly Matters"

"There is so much more to a student than their grade and work ethic. Running alongside my students has helped me learn what truly matters about my students." Jessica ran with SRLA as a student and is now a teacher at MSA1 Reseda. Read her blog to learn how this season as an SRLA Leader has transformed her approach to teaching.

SRLA Conquers the Pasadena Half Marathon

This past Sunday we had over 3,000 students and leaders cross the finish line of the Pasadena Half Marathon into the world famous Rose Bowl Stadium! With the Pasadena Half Marathon complete, we have just one training event left until our students are ready to take on the Los Angeles Marathon. Check out our Race Day Album for more pictures from the event.
